

Communication & Language and Literacy

Read the story of The Tiger Who Came to Tea. If you do not have a paper copy, a digital copy can be found on YouTube. Just search 'The Tiger Who Came to Tea (Listen Along Version)'. Several activities can be found in a separate Home Learning Literacy document.

Learning opportunities after reading

- Can you act out the story to your grown ups?
- What was your favourite part of the story?
Draw and label your favourite part. Explain why in a sentence.
My favourite part was.... because...

Phonics

This week, use the separate Phonics document to access learning opportunities for the phonemes 'ch' and 'sh'. What objects can you find around the house that use these sounds? Maybe your grown ups can write some of the words for you to read? Can you write a sentence using some the words?

Practise reading and spelling words using the following links:

Mathematics

Money

For this week, please access your Maths learning opportunities through the separate Maths document. Whilst at home, you can be developing your Number skills by counting forwards and backwards, identifying one more and one less of a number and practising forming your numbers accurately.

Topic – Understanding the World and Expressive Art and Design

Spring

Please see the separate document for the Topic learning opportunities. As spring is upon us, please make the most of this beautiful weather by getting outside and exploring your personal outdoor area. Why not hunt for signs of spring, or identify the different birds who are beginning to build their nests? Draw and label a picture of what signs of spring you find.

RE/ PSHE

Easter

With the signs of spring starting to appear, Easter is not far away. See the separate document for our Easter learning opportunities. Learn about the story of Easter and why and how it is celebrated. Easter is also a time to celebrate new life. Do you celebrate Easter in a different way? How do you celebrate with your family?

Other Learning Opportunities
